

Moving on

From maiden to mother-of-all-styles, Jayne Dawson reports on the rise of the middle-aged woman

"Growing up in the 1950s, I was taught to be a good girl. I was told to be a good daughter, a good wife, a good mother, and a good citizen. I was told to be a good woman."

But now, I'm a woman. I'm a woman who has grown up. I'm a woman who has learned to be a good woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman.

I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman.

I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman.

I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman.

I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman.

I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman.

I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman.

I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman.

I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman. I'm a woman who has learned to be a woman who is not afraid to be a woman.
